†Original notice of the question was received in Hindi.

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF MINES (SHRI RAMESH BAIS): (a) Mining activity is done in persuance of the mineral concession granted under the provisions of the Mines and Mineral (Development and Regulation) Act, 1957 (MMDR Act) and rules framed thereunder. Under section 3(e) of the MMDR Act, certain minerals are notified from time to time as minor minerals for which the States are empowered to frame rules for grant of mineral concessions, while for all other minerals (major minerals), the mineral concessions are granted by the State Governments subject to the rules prescribed in Mineral Concession Rules, 1960.

However, mining activities are also subject to other laws of the land including the Forest (Conservation) Act, 1980, and rules framed hereunder and Environment (Protection) Act, 1986 and rules and notifications issued thereunder. As per the Gazette Notification SO 319(E) dated 7th May, 1992 (Aravali notification) amended vide Gazette Notification SO 248(E) dated the 28.2.2003, for specified areas of Aravali range, for all mining processes and operations except mining projects (major minerals) with lease area more than five hectares in the specified areas of the Aravali range, prior permission of the Union Ministry of Environment and Forests (MOEF), is required, under Aravali notification. For mining projects (major minerals) with lease area more than five hectares prior permission of Ministry of Environment & Forests is required in accordance with MOEF notification No. SO 60(E) dated 27.1.1994 in Aravali hills as well as rest of India.

(b) No, Sir. Ministry of Environment & Forests has informed that there is no proposal to bring any Bill to limit mining in Aravali region.

(c) In view of (b) above, does not arise.
